About Energy Healing

We are holistic beings, and our physical, emotional, mental and spirit aspects are intertwined. Health and wellness consist of having a balance between these aspects of ourselves. Energy imbalances and blockages can frequently lead to illness and disease, and Energy Healing has a role in supporting our journey back to health. Energy Healing works with the human energy field to support one's natural ability to heal, works in harmony with standard medical care and is safe for children and adults of all ages.
